President's Column

by Gary Robbins

Happy Holidays

The holidays are finally here. This semester has really flown by. It seems like yesterday we were getting ready to start summer band. By the time you get this article the semester will nearly be over. Please take time during the holiday season to encourage your band students to use their talents to play seasonal music during special events being held in your community. Try to promote as many students as possible. With music in such demand during this time of year, it is an excellent opportunity to promote your program through the celebration of the spirit of the holidays. There are several places in which they may have the opportunity to play. There are service clubs, churches, retirement homes, as well as downtown businesses.

Auditions

If the holidays are upon us, it means auditions are taking place or have taken place. By now most of you have finished your region auditions. I hope if you used the "Filemaker Pro" program at the region level, everything went well. Remember, at the Area level, everyone MUST use this program. If you are an Area Coordinator, please make sure you completely understand this program. I would like to thank all of the Region Coordinators as well as the Area Coordinators for the work they do and are doing to help these auditions run smoothly.

ATSSB/TMEA Leadership Meeting

During the middle of October, Robert Stovall called me to see if we (ATSSB) wanted to have a general dialogue meeting. I thought it was a great idea, so TMEA Executive Board Members Jeff Laird, Kerry Taylor, and Robert Stovall met with ATSSB Members George Strickland, Ed Lowes and myself. The meeting was very positive. Mr. Stovall suggested that we have these meetings at least once, if not twice, a year. One meeting will take place every July before the TBA Convention, and a second meeting (if necessary) will be scheduled in the fall.

The meeting covered topics ranging from the enrollment of current small schools to the shortage of band directors in the smaller schools. There was also discussion about the newly formed ATSSB All State Jazz Band. I am glad that Robert had the idea for the two leaderships to have a time to sit down and visit. With these meetings, I feel like the ATSSB and TMEA leadership can better address the common concerns of all students in the state.

State Convention/Clinic

As we approach the clinic in February, I am getting more and more excited. Our clinicians this year are Francis McBeth and James Barnes. I have seen the commissioned piece by Barnes, and it looks well written. I cannot wait to hear it played.

The convention clinic and concerts take a lot of preparation and planning. Our State Chair Audition Coordinator this year is Steven Moore from Lindale High School. Steven ran a smooth audition at last year's convention. Running the computers again will be Neal Sutton from Atlanta High School. I am sure these two men and their helpers will make our state auditions run professionally. I would also like to thank the band and percussion organizers as well. These individuals give up an entire convention to make sure our students have a positive all state experience. Thanks to all who help!

Last President's Article

These last two years have gone by quickly! It seems like I just got started being your President. It has been a pleasure serving you. When I took office, I asked for your prayers as well as your support. I feel like I have received both. Because without both of these things, I would not have been able to lead this great organization as effectively. I only hope that I have led in a professional and positive way. The future leadership of this great organization is in good hands with Mr. Ed Lowes. I wish for you to support him as much as you have me.

Please take time to vote in the elections at TMEA. Your future depends on it. Take time to attend the meeting and then make your choice for your class representatives as well as your new President Elect.

Thank you again for allowing me to serve you, Gary M. Robbins

President Elect's Column

by Ed Lowes

First of all let me say Congratulations to Rob Toups and his staff along with the Canton High School Marching & Concert Band students. It is truly an amazing level of fine arts skills for those students to achieve so much excellence. We should take a few hours of workshop sessions with the directors of this fine group. And to the other fine band programs in the state... Congratulations to Robinson, Canyon, Crystal City, Wylie, Pearsall, and Princeton for making the finals. I know that it is very difficult to get out of some of these area competitions to advance to state and then here comes Canton doing everything so well. I can't wait to hear their performance in February.

Did everyone get their 60% discount on returning rain-ponchos before the deadline? Boy did I save the local drill team this year. I ordered their rain-ponchos on Thursday and had them protected from the rain on Friday.

I told my kids to work harder before the rainy season hits. At least you could be inside working on musical skills. When you read this letter we may have played our 44th or 48th football game & half-time performance. I understand the stress that the Sealy & Westlake bands have faced each year. I congratulate the teams across the state that allowed many of our bands to perform before thousand of fans. This is an important community service. Have you also been able to work with your region band students weekly? Have you worked on your plans for competing while also performing at games? How about Christmas concerts or a local parade? How do you balance your local needs without burning out your students? Let's watch what the TMEA committee comes up in regards to the marching band season.

Have you served your community? We did a patriotic service in Austin honoring veterans in our county this past month. After thinking about what else we could do on this holiday, we came up with several educational events that the students enjoyed. Have you thought about what would benefit your band students? How much pressure did you place on your students attending band rehearsals; signing up for region band; and solo & ensembles etc.? Re-think the needs of your students. We have just passed the Thanksgiving Season. I hope that you have thanked your students for their community service and active participation in our region, area & all-state band experiences. Remember our association is here to help you as you follow the path towards excellence.

Remember to vote for the nominees in Class C/CC Representative, Class AA Representative, & President-Elect. I want to thank Gary Robbins for his fine leadership as we continue to grow and meet the needs of every small school band program in the state. Thank your region officers that take the time to prepare for their region contests. The Area

Coordinators have a short time over the holidays as they work and prepare for the area contest in January. It is important to understand that until you give service to your school, your kids, and your association, you will not fully appreciate the time, effort and thought involved in making this a great association.

I appreciate everything that ATSSB has done for the kids in the state. The TMEA/ATSSB dialogue meeting was very cordial to ATSSB. We are working to make this an enriched environment for all of the students in Texas. I look forward to serving you as your ATSSB President. It is an honor to work with the finest people in the profession.

Best wishes,

Executive Secretary's Column

by Kenneth L. Griffin

I hope the ATSSB audition process went well for all of you at the region level and that you are looking forward to Area January 11. Be sure when you go to Area that all forms are properly signed and completed, that you make hotel reservations for your students that make the All-State Band, and that you make housing plans yourself.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Gary Robbins for his service to ATSSB for the last four years - two as President-Elect (and SARC Chair) and the last two as President. I look forward to working with him the next two years as he chairs the Past-President Committee. I would also like to thank Sherry Poteet and Lonnie Baker for their service to ATSSB as Class C/CC and Class AA Representatives to the State Board of Directors. It is a time-consuming but necessary role that they played as the Executive Committee of which they are a part has tried to accommodate the needs of students and their directors.

Our ATSSB All-State Band Scholarship Fund stands at $ 50,124.20. This increase is due in large part to the 165 members thus far who joined after October 1 paying an additional $25 in dues which went into this fund and from royalties paid by our Licensees. Many thanks to those 165 for their contributions! But please make an effort to not only thank our Licensees for their support, but also to use their services. These companies have paid a fee and are under contract to use the ATSSB logo and marks on their products. They pay a portion of their receipts to the ATSSB All-State Band Scholarship. Please consider using them before any other companies offering their products: Southwest Specialties (Freddy Butlar - Midlothian) = T-shirts, caps, plaques, etc.; Probst Audio (Scott Probst - Ennis) = audio recordings of concerts on CD; Concertronics (William Collins - Victoria) = recording of concerts on tape or CD; Jordan Sound Productions (Gary Jordan - Bullard) = recording of concerts on tapes or CD and ATSSB Area etude performance tapes; Made To Order (Larry Wood - Lorenzo) = T-shirts, caps, plaques, etc.; California T's (L. Steve Taylor - Lubbock) = T-shirts, caps, plaques, etc.; Rehearsal Solutions (Robert McElroy - Bellville) = ATSSB Area etude performance sequence files; and On Site Digital (Randy Bryant - Austin) - recording of concerts on tapes or CD.

A reminder about piccolo and E_b clarinet: If your flute or clarinet player makes the All-State Band at the Area auditions January 11 and would like to play piccolo (flutes) or E_b Soprano Clarinet (clarinets), have them bring these instruments to San Antonio. After regular chair auditions are completed for flute/clarinet, we will hold separate auditions for these two instruments for each band from among those students interested in it that were selected for their respective bands. One piccolo and one soprano clarinet may be selected from among the Symphonic flutes and clarinets; also, one piccolo and one soprano clarinet may be selected from among the Concert flutes and clarinets. If no one auditions on these instruments from one, either, or both bands, then the instrument will not be used. A notice concerning this policy will be placed in the flute and clarinet packets they will receive at Area this year if they are selected for the All-State Band.

We will continue our hotel reservation practice. Each student that wishes to stay in ATSSB housing must pay a $125 housing fee directly to ATSSB (the address will be on the housing form they complete at Area). ATSSB will then pay one check for the hotel rooms up front. If directors are able to reserve a room using ATSSB housing forms, they must pay for the room in one check directly to ATSSB in the amount of $348 (split any way you can among directors sharing the room with you). Make sure you include the student name and school (or director's name and school). Remember to take care of this before January 31 or you will lose your reservation.

We plan to hold our ATSSB Business Session in the Scottish Rite Auditorium at 12:00 noon on Thursday, February 13. Elections for President-Elect, Class C/CC and Class AA Representatives to the State Board of Directors will be held at this meeting. I hope you can make plans to attend during the busy activities in San Antonio at that time of year to attend. Remember that proxies are not allowed in these elections. A short biographical sketch of each candidate for state office can

When you get a chance, be sure to thank our Region and Area Coordinators for their efforts in securing audition sites, hosts, audition chairmen, computer equipment and logistics, etc. Also, let's not forget to thank our State Chair Audition Coordinator (Steven Moore of Lindale) and all of his helpers and judging panels in advance of the work facing them as the two bands are seated. Our All-State Symphonic Band Organizer (Perry Morris of Giddings), All-State Symphonic Band Percussion Organizer (David Lambert of Robinson), All-State Concert Band Organizer (Cindy Mikel of Argyle), and All-State Concert Band Percussion Organizer (Cathie Cain of Garrison) still have a job ahead of them. The convention-clinic and concerts will take a LOT of preparation, advanced planning and organization. Rooms have been booked for you and your students, the Scottish Rite Auditorium has been reserved and liability insurance purchased for the time we will occupy it. Arrangements for police security in the auditorium have been made, stands and percussion equipment have to be provided before chair auditions begin on Wednesday night, programs have to be completed, badges for the students have to be made and personalized, entertainment for All-State students prior to the general meeting arranged -- not to mention many other activities taking place in the background as we prepare for the clinic. All of the people involved give so much of their time to make it a success. It would not be possible if it weren't for their dedication to the profession and the students in the All-State Bands who benefit from their efforts.

Since this will be our last communication before San Antonio, let me address those of you who will have students in the All-State Band for the first time. Please remember that many are in the "big city" for the first time. They will need frequent contact with you to allay their fears and keep them focused on their role as they represent not only ATSSB, but also their bands, school, and community. Drop by rehearsals often, especially at breaks, to see that they have a place to go and that they know what they may do in their free time. It also helps to have directors observing rehearsals at all times. Not only do we learn good rehearsal techniques from our fine clinicians, but also we can act as a restraining presence to students who might otherwise allow their attention to drift during rehearsals. There is certainly nothing wrong with leaning over a student with a cap on and quietly asking him or her to remove it -- or watching a section and noticing a student talking in a distracting manner and quietly asking them to stop. Our Organizers are with the band almost constantly, but we cannot expect them to be there every minute nor expect them to see every infraction of rehearsal protocol. Try to drop by and give a listen -- and a hand.

Our corporate supporters are so consistent in their desire to help provide shoulder patches, programs, "breakout" refreshments for the all-state students. They will be recognized in the all-state programs, but I just wanted to say an additional "Thank You" to them in advance for their contributions to the continued success of the ATSSB All-State Band.

We were all saddened to hear of the tragic death of Dan Frels and his wife in an accident. If you know of any other members or former members who have passed away, please let us know so we can recognize their passing to their fellow directors.

Be sure to visit with your Region Coordinators about issues you wish addressed at the State Board meeting coming up. One item concerns the ATSSB Website Chatboard and whether it should be restricted to ATSSB members only. Another item is a proposal to publish the Newsletter online quarterly, but only do a physical mailout in September when it is sent to all schools with the PAL Update each year. Make your opinions about these issues and others confronting ATSSB known to your representatives to the State Board so they can be discussed with a consensus from the membership.

Thank all of you for your continued diligence and hard work on behalf of the students in our small school programs. Keep up the great work.

IN MEMORIAM

Dan Frels, Cuero

I want to remind the OPS winners and runners-up that their presence is expected at the General Session of ATSSB in February at the TMEA convention in San Antonio. It will be a pleasure and a privilege to present each of them with a beautiful plaque that they can keep and display for many years to come. If you cannot attend the meeting, please notify me several days in advance with the name of the individual who will be accepting the award on your behalf.

You should be able to type all information onto the forms and print them from your computer. Be sure you print two copies since all information will be lost when you close out the screen. You will also find all information concerning entry deadlines, director's instructions, Region Coordinator's instructions, etc., on the ATSSB website. Please take the time to read those instructions very carefully.

I want to remind the membership that judges for the OPS will now be paid a small honorarium. That was explained in detail in the September Newsletter which you can find on the ATSSB website. Please read that again so you will know the amount of the honorarium that you can expect. We wish it could be more, but maybe it will help a little. It is especially important that the Region Coordinators understand how much they can pay each judge. If you have questions, I will be glad to help you.

I hope you all have an enjoyable holiday season. See you in February. Don Thoede

Biographies of the nominees follow below. All Active Members may vote for President-Elect, but members may only vote on the candidates for the class schools in which they are actively involved. For example, if a member is at a class AA high school, then he or she may only vote for the class AA Representative in addition to President-Elect. Directors at C/CC may also vote for the Class AA Representative if their school feeds a Class AA school. Class AAA and class A high schools may only vote for President-Elect. ATSSB has provided many positive opportunities for my students and helped my program grow. If elected, I will do my best to serve the organization and try to give back to ATSSB as much as has been given to me and my students. The alignment of ATSSB and TMEA has been good. I believe that a good relationship between the two organizations is a must and makes both organizations stronger. I will work to keep that relationship strong. In addition, I will work with all

He was an early supporter of ATSSB and served as the ATSSB Region Chairman in Region 13 for four years. He also has judged at district, area and all state tryouts for many years. They have four children. Mr. Harrison is presently in his 28th year of teaching. "ATSSB has been an important organization to the small schools of Texas. The founding ideas and ideals need to be carried on and maintained. New ideas for the junior high band programs of small schools need to be investigated and addressed. This is the reason why I am running for the office of class C/CC representative to the state board."

With a history of building successful small school band programs, Lonnie believes his greatest accomplishment is the number of his students who continue with music after high school and those who have chosen music education as their career.

Mr. Henry also did the majority of his music education training under the watchful eyes of Mr. Brinson.

Mr. Henry attended the University of North Texas and worked on his masters degree from 1988-90. While there, he worked towards a Master of Music Theory. While at UNT, Mr. Henry was a graduate assistant for Professor Henry Gibbons, and toured and performed with many ensembles.

His Somerville bands have received nine consecutive first divisions in Marching, four consecutive appearances at the Area marching Contest, six consecutive UIL Sweepstakes Awards, and three Outstanding Bands awards in invitational festivals in Louisiana, Florida, and Colorado. They also placed third and tied for fifth in the last two TMEA Honor Band competitions. A Message from TMEA President Robert Stovall

Earlier this school year, members of the ATSSB and TMEA Executive Board met to discuss issues that concerned both organizations. The meeting proved to be both beneficial and one of confirmation. A positive relationship that had somewhat diminished over the past few years was once again ignited, as enthusiastic and optimistic dialogue was the focus of the day. I would like to thank President Gary Robbins, President-elect Ed Lowes, Past President George Strickland, and ATSSB Executive Secretary Kenneth Griffin for their time, valuable input, and passion and commitment toward music education.

As with any organization, things change over a period of time. New people in leadership roles with new issues, and new ideas enable organizations to advance and grow in many different ways. Thus is the case with both ATSSB and TMEA. It is common knowledge that both organizations continue to grow in membership. I choose to believe the growth is due to our involvement in several diverse areas: legislature, school administration, and because of the strength and leadership in the twenty-four TMEA regions.

Because of the UIL re-classification formula, we are seeing drastic changes in enrollment for class 3-A and 4-A schools. It was not long ago that the minimum of a 3-A school was 700 students. Now that number has risen significantly to 899. Likewise, the maximum for a 4-A school was 1,500 and now it has recently changed to 1,899. Although the number of schools per classification stays relatively the same (approximately 225 schools per classification) the enrollment figures continue to rise. How does this effect ATSSB? I would think this UIL scenario allows for continued potential growth for ATSSB. As a result of these continuing rising numbers, ATSSB quite possibly could one day have schools with an enrollment of 1,000. Also, with this current formula, ATSSB will have more 1-A and 2-A school members. Currently, there are approximately 560 schools in these two classifications. As ATSSB enters it's next decade, these demographics could be a factor.

Additionally there are geographic concerns regarding enrollment. Just recently, an education service center relayed an astonishing figure to Area A principals. Over the past two years, school enrollment has dropped twelve percent in parts of west Texas. ATSSB and TMEA need to join together to help these areas of declining enrollment. We must come up with a plan that will inspire new and experienced band directors to teach in these smaller communities. Together, we can instill the importance of teaching in a small rural community. With time and communication between the two organizations, the groundwork can be put into place for this dilemma.

Coming from a small 4-A soon to be 3-A school district, I can honestly say that I understand the importance of establishing music in small schools. I have spent 21 of my 24 years in a small school. Small schools have unique problems than that of large school districts. As a member of TMEA, I can honestly say that many times, TMEA has been my resource for the problems that face small schools. TMEA has helped both my choral program and our band programs in times when we stood to lose ground. With this renewed commitment and common bond of helping ALL music programs, I know that both ATSSB and TMEA will strive to assist and provide all they can for any school district regardless of size. In this new decade of ATSSB, I am confident that many problems facing us can be eradicated due to the joint efforts of both organizations. After all, we must remember, both ATSSB and TMEA stand for a quality music education for all students in Texas.

As President of TMEA, I congratulate the many outstanding band directors of small schools. You truly go that extra mile for your program. I encourage you to continue in your quest for excellence. It will only enhance the importance of music education in your schools and communities. Please know that both ATSSB and TMEA are collectively available to offer assistance with your program when asked. Here's to a continued successful relationship with ATSSB and TMEA.

Arts Education Day at the Capitol

On March 3, 2003 the Texas Coalition for Quality Arts Education (TCQAE) will host its fourth Arts Education Day at the Capitol. The day will be a celebration of the outstanding arts (music, art, theatre and dance) programs throughout the state. Before the event, information about the day's events and the importance of the arts and arts education will be hand-delivered by arts students to state Legislators and the Texas Education Agency.

The event will culminate the TCQAE's marketing campaign-Unleash the Power of the Arts!-promoting fine arts education in Texas.

The marketing campaign included the production and distribution of a PowerPoint presentation entitled "Why Arts Education is Important!" The TCQAE also distributed thousands of CD's with the PowerPoint presentation to the Governor, key Legislators and Texas Education Agency personnel, Education Service Centers, arts and educational organizations, parent organizations, business leaders, arts supervisors and others.

Robert Floyd, Chair of the TCQAE and Executive Director of the Texas Music Educators Association stated "The member organizations of the Texas Coalition for Quality Arts Education (TCQAE) work in concert to serve as a common voice for the advancement of quality fine arts education for all students in Texas. TCQAE members strive to articulate the importance of student learning in the fine arts disciplines and communicate proven standards for quality arts programs in our schools."

The campaign also included the distribution a new booklet entitled What Every Parent, Administrator and School Board Member Should Know: Why the Arts are Important! (and,) Texas Fine Arts Education ACCORD. An education without the fine arts is not a complete education. This campaign tells our parents what they need to know to strengthen the importance of the arts in our students' lives: stated Loren McKibbens, chair of the Arts-in-Education Committee of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers and new Commissioner of the Texas Commission on the Arts.

Students will give the CDs and booklets to our state leaders on Arts Education Day. The ACCORD states our beliefs in what quality arts education should be in every school in Texas. This document includes: defining the fine arts; curriculum issues; scheduling; professional development; college education and teacher preparation; students with disabilities; Gifted and Talented/magnet schools; and, financial support for the arts in our schools

The events will start at noon in the Capitol Rotunda. A variety of activities and outstanding student performances are planned. Last year over twenty-five student groups performed, including jazz bands, string quartets, Mariachis, dance ensembles, theatre performers, and many other award winning groups.

On the South Steps of the Capitol from 1:30 to 5:00 p.m., additional student performances will be staged to allow a larger audience to participate in the day's events. In addition, outstanding student artwork from all across Texas will be featured in the Capitol Extension building as a part of the Texas Art Education Association, Youth Art Month Exhibit. Several performances may also take place in the House and Senate Chambers.
