Mary is a graduate of Fox High School, Fox, Oklahoma. She holds a BME degree from the University of Oklahoma and a MME from Southwestern Oklahoma State University. In 1980, Mary started her teaching career at Velma-Alma, Oklahoma, where she taught band and choir. In 1984, Mary moved to Altus where she taught at Northeast Junior High and an assistant director at Altus High School. In 1997, Mary became the head director at Altus High School. She is a member of OMEA, OBA, Phi Beta Mu, and is a National Board Certified teacher. She was the 2015 Oklahoma Bandmasters Band Director of the Year and was inducted into the Oklahoma Bandmasters Hall of Fame in 2018. During her prestigious 37 years as a band director, one of her most memorable performances was when "That Altus Band" marched in the 75th Anniversary of Pearl Harbor in Waikiki, Hawaii. She retired in May 2017, but continues as an educational representative for a music store, a private teacher, clinician, and adjudicator. She plays her flute in Altus, and is part of the worship band at Altus First Baptist Church. She is married to an "ex" coach and has one son, who is a physical therapist..

Eric Rath is the Director of Bands at Canyon JH and the Director of Percussion for the Canyon High School Cluster. He is an active educator, guest conductor-clinician, adjudicator, arranger and composer. In 2019, he was named the Teacher of the Year at Canyon JH. As an educator, Mr. Rath's groups have achieved consistent First Division ratings. Twice, his bands have reached the State level of the Texas Music Educator's Association Honor Band Competition. His rehearsal philosophy is embodied in the concept that "students work harder and achieve more when the experience is engaging, challenging and fun." A champion of new music, Mr. Rath's bands often perform music by living composers and collaborate with them as opportunities arise. Mr. Rath is a member of the Amarillo Symphony Orchestra and is a proud graduate of West Texas A&M University, where he received both his Bachelor of Music Education and his Master of Arts Degree. Mr. Rath resides in Canyon, Texas, with his wife Kayla, and their five children Regan, Grant, McKinley, Jackson and Harrison. He is a Yamaha Performing Artist and also an educational artist for Innovative Percussion, Inc.
