JAMES CURNOW

James Curnow was born in Port Huron, Michigan and raised in Royal Oak, Michigan. He lives in Nicholasville, Kentucky where he is president, composer, and educational consultant for Curnow Music Press, Inc., publishers of significant music for concert band, symphonic band, and brass band. He also serves as Composer-in-residence on the faculty of Asbury College in Wilmore, Kentucky.

His formal training was received at Wayne State University (Detroit, Michigan) and at Michigan State University (East Lansing, Michigan), where he was a euphonium student of Leonard Palcone, and a conducting student of Dr. Harry Begian.

James Curnow has taught in all areas on instrumental music, both on the public school level (five years), and college and university level (eighteen years). He is a member of several professional organizations, including the American Bandmaster's Association, College Band Director's National Association, National Band Association, World Association of Symphonic Bands and Ensembles, American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers. In 1974 he received the Outstanding Educator of America Award, and in 1980, The National Band Association's Citation of Excellence. In 1985, while a tenured Associate Professor at the University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbans, Mr. Curnow was honored as a outstanding faculty member. Among his most recent honors was inclusion in the 1991 Who's Who In America, Who's Who in The South and Southwest.

As a conductor, clinician and composer, Curnow has traveled throughout the United States, Canada, Australia, and Europe where his music has received wide acclaim. He has won several awards for band compositions including the American School Band Directors Association/Volkwein Award in 1977 (Symphonic Triptych) and 1979 (Mutanza) and 1984 (Symphonic Variants for Euphonium and Band), the 1985 Sixth International Competition of Original Compositions for Band (Australian Variant Suite) Sponsored by the Cassa di Risparmio di Perugia of Corciano, Italy, the 1994 Coup de Venis Composition Contest of Le Havre, France (Lochinvar) and has received annual American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers (ASCAP) awards since 1979.
